FOREST PARK
PUBLIC LIBRARY

Color in one Shelly space for every day you read together this summer. Color in a bonus space if you attend a library storytime or try a Talk, Sing, Read, Write, Play activity like our examples below.

- Write or trace words or a name together.
- Count off all your fingers and toes to a family member.
- Practice with counting 1-10 in a different language.
- Draw your favorite character from a book.
- Sing or chant a familiar or favorite rhyme.
- Cook or bake as a family.
- Talk about the letters in the names of people in your family.
- Draw pictures to your favorite music.
- Have a family dance party.
- Play a collaborative game at the library or at home.
- Put on a play with family or friends with puppets or stuffed animals.
- Share something with a friend.
- Do something kind for a neighbor or a person in your community.
- Practice writing or tracing the numbers 0-5.
- Make someone a thank you card or picture.
- Play with modeling clay or dough.
- Retell your favorite story together without the book.
- Try a library Make & Take craft.
- Draw your favorite character.
- Count as high as you can together.
- Sing the alphabet song.
- Write your favorite rhyme/word.
- Make a new friend.
- Listen to music from different cultures or countries.
- Read a book about a family that is different from yours.
